

NECE – Networking European Citizenship Education

European Workshop

Federal Agency for Civic Education (Bundeszentrale für politische Bildung)

in Co-operation with the Remembrance and Future Fund (Fonds “Erinnerung und Zukunft”)

The Politics of Memory in European Migration Societies: Consequences for Citizenship Education

Berlin, October 11-13, 2006

www.bpb.de/nece

Programme

October 11, 2006

Afternoon: Arrival of Participants / Check in at Hotel Mercure, Schützenstrasse 11, Checkpoint Charlie
18:45 h Departure to the Restaurant “Speisezimmer”, Meeting Point: Lobby Hotel Mercure
19:30 h Welcome Dinner at the Restaurant “Speisezimmer”, Chausseestrasse 8
Welcome Addresses
Bernd Hübinger, Vice-President of the Federal Agency of Civic Education, Bonn
Günter Saathoff, Member of the Board of Directors of the Remembrance and Future Fund, Berlin

October 12, 2006

9:00 h Introduction: Christoph Müller-Hofstede / Viola B. Georgi (15’)
9:15 h Opening Speech:
Holocaust, Communism and Colonialism: The Difficult Politics of Memory in Europe
Micha Brumlik, Frankfurt am Main, Germany (45’)
10:00 h Discussion
10:45 h Coffee

- 11:15 h Panel I: The Legacy of the Holocaust in the Collective Memory of Europe
 Chair and Introduction: Hanno Loewy, Hohenems, Austria (10')
 Keynote: Cecilie Felicia Stokholm Banke, Copenhagen, Denmark (20')
Educational Perspective: Challenges for Holocaust Education in Europe
 Monique Eckmann, Geneva, Switzerland (10')
- 13:00 h Lunch
- 14:30 h Panel II: The Legacy of Communism in the Collective Memory of Europe
 Chair and Introduction: Annegret Ehmann, Berlin, Germany (10')
 Keynote:
1956 and All That: Khrushchev, "Le Livre Noir du Communisme", and the Kalniete-Korn Debate
 Stefan Troebst, Leipzig, Germany (20')
- 15:00 h Discussion
- 15:30 h Case Study: The Politics of Memory in a Changing Polish Society
 Jacek Żakowski, Warszawa, Poland (20')
- 15:50 h Discussion
- 16:30 h Coffee
- 17:00 h Panel III: The Legacy of Colonialism in the Collective Memory of Europe
 Chair and Introduction:
 Peggy Piesche, Mainz, Germany (10')
 Keynote: Henning Melber, Uppsala, Sweden (20')
Colonialism - Integral Part of European Modernity
- Case Study: Colonialism in the Public Memory of the Netherlands
 Gert Oostindie, Leiden, Netherlands (20')
- 17:50 h Discussion
- 18.30 h Phase of Reflection: Small Sessions
- 19:30 h Dinner at dbb-forum Berlin
- 21:00 h Informal talks

October 13, 2006

- 9:00 h Feedback from Small Sessions and Reflections of Participants
- 9:45 h Panel III: Citizenship Learning and Diversity
- Chair and Introduction:
Rainer Ohliger, Berlin, Germany (10')
Keynote: Jagdish Gundara, London, United Kingdom (30')
- Linking Civilisational Knowledge and Inclusive Citizenship
- 10:15 h Discussion
- 11:00 h Coffee Break
- 11:30 h Envisioning the Future of Intercultural History Learning
- Doron Kiesel, Erfurt, Germany (15')
Yildiz Akdogan, Copenhagen, Denmark (15')
- 12:00 h Concluding Discussion
- 13.00 h Lunch and Departure

Venue:	dbb-forum Berlin Friedrichstr. 169/170, 10117 Berlin Tel.: +49 (0) 30 / 40 81 45 00
Accomodation:	Mercure Hotel Berlin Checkpoint Charlie Schützenstrasse 11, 10117 Berlin Tel.: +49 (030) 2063-20 – Fax: +49 (030) 2063-2111
Organization:	Christoph Müller-Hofstede, M.A. mailto:Mueller-Hofstede@bpb.de Dr. Viola Georgi mailto:georgi@lrz.uni-muenchen.de Anja Ostermann mailto:ostermann@lab-concepts.de